Dedication

With Gratitude and --- appreciation of his loyalty and untiring efforts to uplift the ideals of Weaver College we affectionately dedicate this, our 1928 Annual, to our beloved Friend and President

CARL HOYT TROWBRIDGE

Foreword

College life is, at its best, a mixture of sunshine and shadow; and in the production of this Annual we have endeavored to give a true retrospect, either in picture or writing, of campus and college life. It is with the hope that, when you have won laurels of success by your achievements, when memory's vision is dimmed by time, and when the winter of life has come, the idle turning of these pages will recall to you pleasant hours spent at Old Weaver, where you were inspired with determination by the training and example of your teachers, in that which has made you a success. If you may meet again your friends, and have brought to your mind happy memories of your college days, we shall feel that we are fully repaid for our efforts.

SALLIE GREEN ALLISON

HORSE SHOE, N. C.

"A friend sincere and true
Always cheerful and studious too."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Chaplain; Life Service Band, President; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson Club; Elected Class Man-Hater.

Sallie Green's modest ways and her willingness to help at all times have won her many friends. She is one of our very best religious workers, and a wonder worker at that; so we wish her the greatest success for the future.

As president of the Christian Service Band, she has accomplished great things; she has made the Band a far greater success than it has ever been before. Perhaps this is because she always stands up for the right no matter what it might cost. Her heart is overflowing with those "little unremembered acts of kindness and of love" which make for the truest friend.

GEORGE FREDRICK BAIER, III

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"The school's loss is the world's eternal gain."

Delphian Literary Society, Vice-President '27, Critic '28, Program Committee '28; Mountaineer Staff, Editor-in-Chief; College Council; Maintenance of Order Committee, Chairman '27; Toastmaster Junior-Senior Banquet '27; Assistant Librarian; Varsity Football '26-'27; Basketball '27; Assistant Manager Basketball Team; Baseball '27; Tennis Club; Buncombe County Club '27, Secretary and Treasurer 28; Dramatic Club; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson Club, Honorary Member; Debate Council; Inter-collegiate Debating Team; Elected Most Manly Boy; Elected Second Best All-round Boy.

"Red" has carried off most of the honors of our class, but we are not jealous because he is worthy of them all. There are always some who stand above their classmates, and "Red", with his ability and persistence, is a man of this type. He studies for a purpose and that purpose is to develop himself in the broadest way possible. We love him because he is a friend to all.

KENNETH B. BEAM

CHERRYVILLE, N. C.

"Genius wins sometimes; hard work always."

Delphian Literary Society, Secretary; Football; Mountaineer Staff, Business Manager; Y. M. C. A., Vice-President; Tennis; Dramatic Club; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play '28; Junior Class Treasurer '27; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club.

A man of many talents, who is not afraid of hard work. A man that holds a host of friends because of his friendly manner, being a general favorite on the campus. Beam has made a success of whatever he has attempted, especially as our Business Manager; also of his particular social affair.

LILLIAN R. BARBER

SALUDA, N. C.

"A form more fair, a face more sweet,
Ne'er has it been my lot to meet."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, President '27; Pep Staff '26-'27; Secretary of Sunday School '27; Secretary of Junior Class '27; Life Service Band; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson Club; Elected Neatest and Prettiest Girl.

Barber's quietness, prettiness, and neatness are not all her fine traits, for she has one still greater capability, which is assured by her dependability.

LOIS BECKERDITE

WINSTON SALEM, N. C

"Affection warm, and faith sincere,
And soft humanity are here."

Mnemosyneau Literary Society '27, Censor '28; Life Service Band, Vice-President '27-'28; Tennis Club '27-'28; Hiker's Club '27; Rowan-Stanly Club; Basketball '27; Debate Council; College Choir; Junior Class Sponsor '27.

We all love "Becky"; who wouldn't? She's a cheerful, sincere friend to all. She and Hartselle are the life of our French class. Of course, they never get into serious mischief! But "Becky" believes in having a good time; so she's one of our deepest pals.

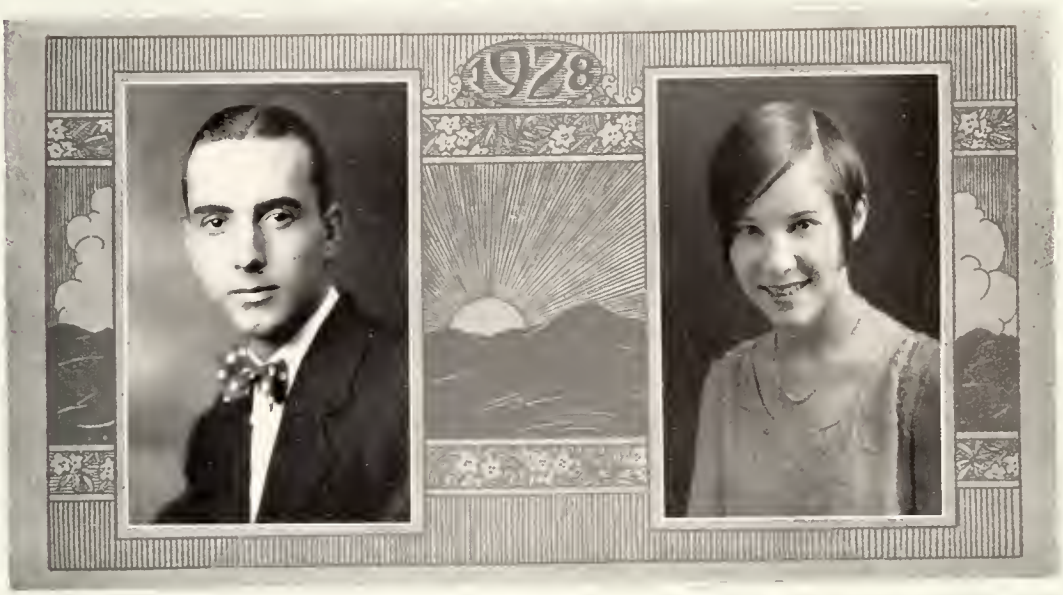
STOWE CARPENTER

CHERRYVILLE, N. C.

"I am as I am and so will I be."

Delphian Literary Society; Football Squad '28; Tennis Club '26-'27-'28; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club, President '27; Epworth League Play '26; Pep Reporter '26.

Stowe never takes things too seriously. He is a firm believer in the slogan: "Never do today that which can be put off until tomorrow." He has his manly qualities too, however. Stowe is a friend to all and has a hearty greeting for everyone.



CHARLES WILLIAM COOK

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Quiet in appearance, with motive unknown.

Cliosophic Literary Society, Treasurer '27. Buncombe County Club.

Another of Asheville's contributions to Weaver. He is the kind of fellow we like to have around—quiet and reserved, but a true friend, who is always willing to help. He is a commutor, and nothing makes him late to classes but cold weather, warm weather, or over sleeping.

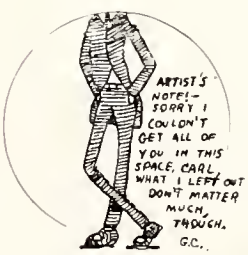
SHELBY BOST

CONCORD, N. C

"As sweet as the music of Apollo's lute."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Rowan-Stanly Club; Tennis Club; Mountaineer Staff, Typist; Class Vamp.

Her ability to make friends and keep them, and her rare musical talent demand the respect of her society, her class, and her school. "Shell" has her fun and frolic too.



LUCILLE CALLAHAN

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C.

"Leave silence to saints, I am but human."

Enterpean Literary Society, Treasurer; Tennis Club; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson Club, President.

"Becky" is always gay and we all love her and wish her success in whatever she attempts—even if it is marriage. She is the soul of good fellowship and has a genius for friendship.

Although she has been with us only one year, we know that she has a wonderful personality and thus makes friends of all. She is the embodiment of good fellowship, joy, and happiness, with a genius for leadership. We predict the best in life for "Becky" because she deserves it.

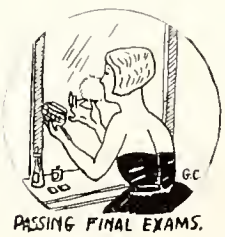
WILLIAM HAROLD GROCE

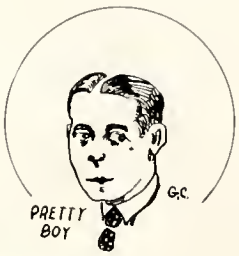
CHANDLER, N. C.

"We leave thy praises unexpressed,
We leave thy greatness to be guessed."

Cliosophic Literary Society, President '27, Secretary '28; Epworth League Cabinet, President '28; Secretary of Senior Class; Debate Council, President; Dramatic Club; Tennis Club; Buncombe County Club; Maintenance of Order Committee '27; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '27, College Council; Committee of Religious Activities; Student Council, President; Mountaineer Staff, Photographic Editor; Elected Neatest and Most Handsome Boy; Elected Best All-round Boy.

There are implanted in his life those principles and aspirations that make for true nobility of character. He has the highest esteem of both the faculty and students. Any class might well be proud to claim such a member as "Pick."





FRED HOLLINSHEAD

BREVARD, N. C.

"The only way to have friends is to be one"

Delphian Literary Society, President '27; Buncombe County Club; Class Prophet; Football.

Fred is one of the most popular boys on the campus with both the "he's" and "she's." Although Fred is the original "woman-hater", he's bound to fall some day. He thinks everyone "arsenic" and has a kind word for all. He is a member of the football squad and a good tennis player. There can be nothing other than a bright future for such a fellow as Fred.

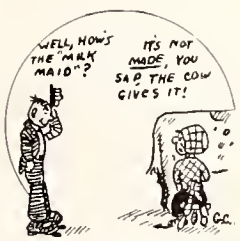
MARGARET COZAD

FRANKLIN, N. C.

"By diligence she wins her way."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Critic '28; Glee Club '26-'27; College Council; Hiker's Club; Life Service Band; Senior Sunday School Class, President; Rowan-Stanly Club, Honorary Member '28; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson Club; College Choir.

An earnest, diligent student, spending most of her waking hours studying or working. Margaret is one of the few who can say that she has wasted little of her time spent at Weaver. From her diligent work among us we are expecting much of her. Although quiet and reserved. She is full of good advise and a true Weaver Student. We envy her unofficial position as assistant dietitian.



MARY JEWEL HARTSELLE

OAKBORO, N. C.

"Youth—a flash of fire, a dash of flame.
Dance and song, joy without a name."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, President and Critic '28; Assistant Manager of Girls' Basketball Team '27; Athletic Council '28; Glee Club '27; Tennis Club '27, Secretary '28; Rowan-Stanly Club '27, President '28; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Hiker's Club; Choir Leader '28; Dramatic Club; Elected Most Energetic Student; Senior Play; Epworth League Play.

"Sheik's" appearance shows what a sport she is; and a sport in more ways than one, not only in athletics, but in everything else. She's a jewel in our midst.

JOON SANG KIM

KOREA

"Here's a big heart always wishing to be friendly with everybody."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Chaplain.

Kim hails from the other side of the world. He left home and friends and braved the dangers and difficulties of a strange land. When it comes to hard and persistent work, Kim is right there. We are expecting to hear of his doing wonderful things for Korea after he gets his degree in America.

VICTOR L. LOGAN

BOSTIC, N. C.

"If you would be his parallel, you must raise your ideals, for he will not lower his."

Chosophic Literary Society, President '28, Secretary '27-'28; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, Vice-President '27; President of Sunday School Class '27; Superintendent of Sunday School '28; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson Club; Tennis Club; Dramatic Club; Mountaineer Staff, Literary Editor; Maintainance of Order Committee '27; Clio-Euterpean Play '26-'27; Epworth League Cabinet, Treasurer '28; Assistant Dean '28; Elected Most Dignified Student.

Men may come and men may go, but many will have to pass before another V. L. Logan could be found. He has won the admiration and esteem of the faculty and students by his dignity and attainment.

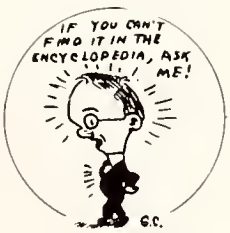
CLEMMA ELIZABETH HENSLEY

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"A hearty friend and comrade true,
If she has faults, they're very few."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Vice-President '27, Secretary and Treasurer '28; Buncombe County Club, Vice-President '28; Pep Staff '27-'28; Hiker's Club '27; Basketball '26-'27; Elected Most Womanly and Most Sincere Girl; Elected Second Best All-round Girl.

Elizabeth is a favorite among the faculty because she is so sincere in her class work. "Dinky" is popular with the students because she is a good sport and always ready to carry her share of the load.



A SURE SIGN OF FINALS!

MARGUERITE HORNE

PEACHLAND, N. C.

"What's the use in worrying, when one is young and free?
I don't bother work and work doesn't bother me."

Euterpean Literary Society; Euterpean Debate; Clio-Euterpean Play '27; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club '27, Secretary '28; Tennis Club '27, President '28; Hiker's Club; Debate Council; College Council, Vice-President; Varsity Basketball '27, Captain '28; Tennis Tournament Winner.

In Marguerite we find a sincere friend. She is a good sport in every phase of school work, especially on the basketball court. She has proved herself to be a lovable, unselfish girl, and seemingly deaf to praise.

R. G. McCLAMROCK

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"Patience conquers the world."

Cliosophic Literary Society, Vice-President, Chaplain, Critic '26-'27; Ministerial Band, President '27; Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; Inter-collegiate Debating Team '27-'28.

He is a man who never makes himself conspicious. He is quiet and slow to move, but when he starts he is a power, both in speech and action. He is Superintendent of the buildings and grounds, and his favorite past-time is directing the boys who work for him, and seeing that they do a full hour's work.

"Mac", we are expecting that some day you will be a great preacher, and a leader for your Church.

J. PAUL MUIR

REEDVILLE, VA.

"He is not in the role of common men.

Delphian Literary Society, President '27, Maintenance of Order Committee, Chairman '27; College Council, Secretary '27; Vice-President Senior Class; Superintendent of Sunday School; Football Manager; Mountaineer Staff, Circulation Manager.

Muir is one of the best all-round men we have. He is popular with the students and faculty alike. He is certain to make a success, for he possesses that earnest, everlasting zeal that marks the way to progress.

RUTH LEDWELL

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Of her sweet voice in echoing hearts,
A sound must long remain."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Vice-President '27, Censor '28; Buncombe County Club, President '27-'28; College Council; Vice-President of Junior Class '27; Hiker's Club; Glee Club; College Choir; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play; Class Monkey; Elected Most Popular Girl; Class Prophetess.

For two years it has been Ruth here, there, and everywhere. Her cheerful disposition and sweet voice have made many a sad soul happy. Well, Ruth, you know what we think of you, for we have chosen you our most popular girl.

ELOUISE REED

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"A lovable, playful, active girl,
Makes good in all she tries."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Buncombe County Club; Delphian Sponsor; Elected Second Most Popular Girl.

All the boys and girls love "Squeezer." She is a jovial girl who takes life as it comes. (We suspect that her ability to preside in the kitchen helped to win her popularity among the boys, for they all like her candy). While she is a merry, carefree girl, she never neglects her studies.

JOHN SALES

FLETCHER, N. C.

"Silence is golden."

Cliosophic Literary Society; Senior Class Treasurer; Rutherford-Polk-Henderson County Club; Baseball '27-'28; Assistant Football Manager; Laziest Boy.

A quiet and studious man; still he always carries a smile upon his face. Johnny is as generous as one can be and a sincere friend to all.

L. BRAYDEN SCARBOROUGH

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Dependability personified."

Ministerial Band, Corresponding Secretary; Buncombe County Club; Serving in Active Ministry.

Scarborough is another new member of our class. He is a good, conscientious student, and his work at Weaver assures us that he has qualities that make a man. We predict for him a brilliant future.

ELIZABETH ROBERTS

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"A friend to all with a generous soul,
In life she'll play a noble role."

Euterpean Literary Society, President '27, Secretary '28; College Council; Pep Staff, Editor-in-Chief '27; Buncombe County Club; Tennis Club; Clio-Euterpean Play.

We all love "Lib" because she is such a good sport and has such an amiable disposition—always looking on the bright side of life. She has played a great part in the life of our class.

FORD STAPLES

ROOPVILLE, GA.

"I put all my troubles in the bottom of my heart,
Then sit on the lid and smile."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Secretary '27-'28; Georgia State Club, President '28; Life Service Band; Mountaineer Staff, Advertising Manager; College Sunday School, Secretary '27, Superintendent '28; Epworth League Cabinet, Vice-President '28; Glee Club; Dramatic Club; Rowan-Stanly Club, Honorary Member; Essay Winner; Debate Council '27.

"Fliver" is a lovable and jolly girl, who is forever making us merry. She has helped to make our annual possible through her remarkable genius in the art of selling advertisements. We're counting on you, Ford, for your past proves that you will be a success.

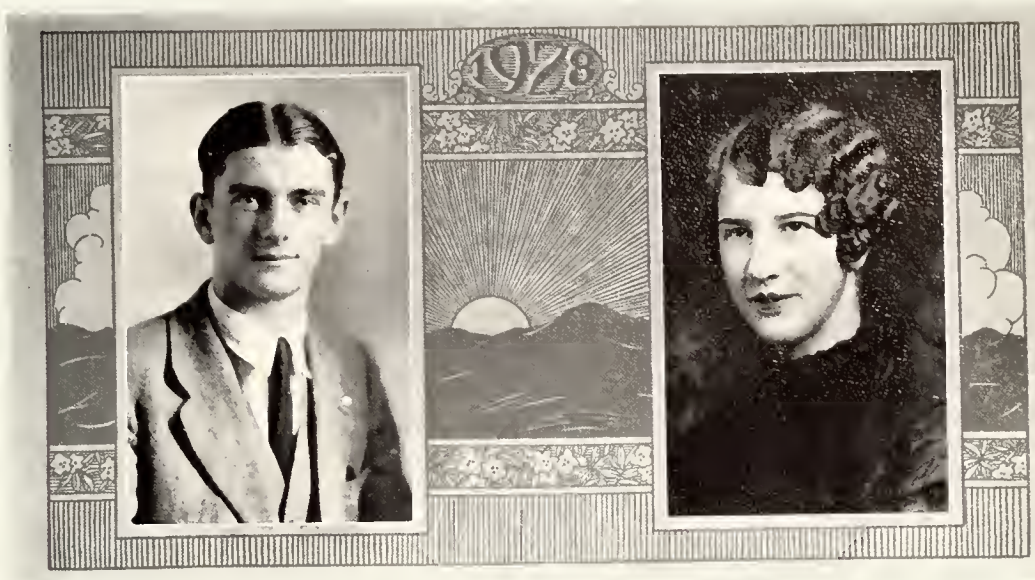
PAUL FRANKLIN SHEPHERD

GASTONIA, N. C.

"Better than riches or worldly wealth,
Is a heart that is always jolly."

Delphian Literary Society, Critic; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet; Ministerial Band; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club; Glee Club.

Although this is his first year at Weaver, we feel sure that "Shep" will make his place in the world. He's always ready to shout a jolly "Hallo" at all; he has a great fondness for playing "rag" on the piano.



CHARLES EDWARD VALE

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

"Above all we love a steadfast friend."

Delphian Literary Society, Chaplain '26 '27; Piedmont-Eastern Carolina Club, Secretary and Treasurer '26; Glee Club, Vice-President '27; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, President '28; Ministerial Band; Dramatic Club; Mnemosynean and Delphian Play '27.

Vale has high hopes and ambitions that some day he will be a great orator and preacher. His favorite pastime is assuming dramatic postures and imitating well known singers. We know that his ambitions will become facts because of his sterling qualities; consequently we expect a brilliant future.

EVA TAYLOR

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"For nature made her what she is
And ne'er made such another."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Buncombe County Club; Tennis Club.

Eva's merry, happy-go-lucky way and her sweet disposition have made her beloved to everyone on the Weaver campus. We are glad she is with us, if it were but for one year.

ANASTASIA TOMBERLIN

SWISS, N. C.

"A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort and command."

Mnemosynean Literary Society, Secretary and Treasurer '27, President '28; Pep Staff; Epworth League Reporter '27; Varsity Basketball '26-'27; Buncombe County Club '27-'28; Hiker's Club; President of Senior Class; Epworth League Cabinet, Secretary; Assistant Dean of Women; Mountaineer Staff; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play; Class Sponsor '28; Elected Sweetest Girl and Best All-round Girl; Salutatorian.

"Stasia's" friends are numbered by her acquaintances. She has taken part in all college activities and still holds the highest of grades. When she counts up her honors she might consider herself an old woman.

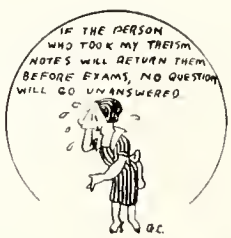
HOWARD WALTER

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Be gone dull care, be gone from me,
You and I will never agree."

Delphian Literary Society, Vice-President '27; Business Manager of Delphian-Mnemosynean Play '27; Buncombe County Club; Tennis Club; Varsity Football '27; Basketball '27-'28; Most Athletic Boy.

"Froggy's" jovial disposition has made for him many friends. His unusual love for sports has made "Frog" a good all-round athlete. Do we like him? You bet. "Tres beaucoup."



PAUL BROWNING WALTER

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Good natured and generous, jolly and clever,
His tongue, like a brooklet, goes on forever."

Delphian Literary Society; Buncombe County Club; Cheer Leader; Dramatic Club; Epworth League Play '27-'28; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play '27-'28; Class Baby.

Paul talks constantly and nearly always says something. He has won a host of friends everywhere, for one cannot help liking him. And as an actor—well he's some Prince Charming.

LEONE WALTERS

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"Thy rapt soul sitting in thine eyes."

Mnemosynean Literary Society.

With her continuous laughter and loving disposition she has endeared herself to us all. Leone is a diligent worker too. Honors have not been her ambition in life, but something greater—friends; and she has made us all become her friends; likewise she is a friend to all of us.

JUAN XIQUES

CUBA

"Virtue is bold and goodness never fearful."

Delphian Literary Society; Tennis Club; Football '26-'27.

Xiques is another one of our friends who comes from a distant land. He has accomplished in two years, under the difficulty of speaking a new language, as much as we have, who are at home. Xiques is a great favorite on the campus—in Asheville, too, it seems.

JESSE YOUNG

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Never over serious, never frivolous,
But a rare good fellow."

Delphian Literary Society.

Among the ten o'clock students Jesse is quite noteworthy. Jesse is a friend to all; he likes to argue just for the sake of arguing. A hobby for sports, especially long distance running; here he has us all beaten.

CLYDE YOUNG

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"A friend worth having with ever a helping hand."

Delphian Literary Society; Mountaineer Staff, Assistant Advertising Manager.

Clyde has the combined qualities of geniality and sincerity that have won for him the friendship of all the students; everybody likes a red-headed boy. It is with regret that we see him leave, but we feel sure that he will be a success in his chosen field of work.

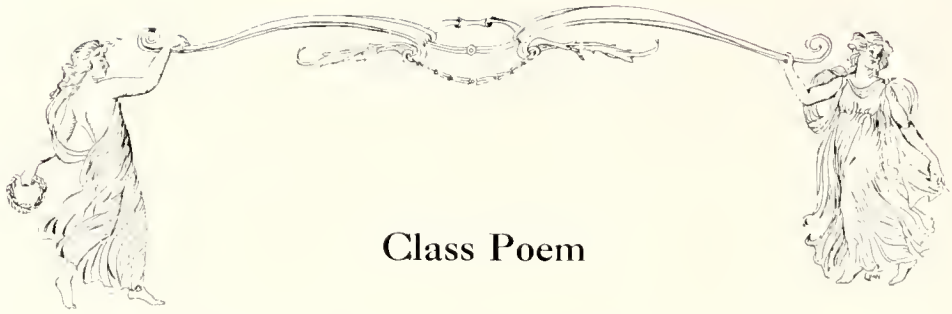
LILLIAN YOUNG

ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"To hide her cares, her chiefest art,
Her pleasure, pleasure to impart."

Mnemosynean Literary Society; Rapunzel Club '27; Hiker's Club, Vice-President '27; Dramatic Club; Buncombe County Club; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play '27; Varsity Basketball '27.

Lillian is one of our most faithful workers; one who toils without grumbling. She is a good pal and cheerful friend. We miss her in the dormitory this year, but realize that Clyde and Jesse really need her to get them to school on time.



Class Poem

A workman was shaping a work of art,
A difficult sculpture, original, and of intricate detail.
Patterns various and models diverse were before him;
Many he consulted, studied; others were ignored.
Ideas he tested and adopted; many he originated.

Throngs of people passed, most of them indifferent;
But occasionally a person detached himself and drew nearer
To question and observe, or to advise, or criticize the artist-worker,
Whose creation had progressed, now having shape
And form, enough to reveal the thought of the Creator.
These persons spoke, expressed contrary opinions.
Before them the worker paused, his zeal abating,
His purpose blurred; the defects they pointed out
In his work he had not perceived; nor was he
Aware of the hindrances they presaged and forebode.
How foolish seemed his plans now!
Sadly but speedily
He gave up the work, convinced that he had no genius.

We work as this laborer, the sculpture, our characters.
Every thought, the least act, contributing to the perfected image.
At times we are discouraged; mistakes appear,
Hope's candle flickers, obstacles confront us.
But faint not, as the workman, nor abandon the work.
Errors strengthen the strong; press on with courage,
And God will be satisfied, whatever the result.

—Charles R. Ross, Class Poet.

Class Statistics

Here is the outcome of our many strenuous elections. We hope the result is agreeable to everybody, although this is scarcely possible. But if the one you voted for didn't win out, don't let it change your opinion. Nevertheless the majority rules; so here goes:—

Best All-round Boy	Harold Groce
Best All-round Girl	Anastasia Tomberlin
Most Popular Boy	Guy Hayes
Most Popular Girl	Ruth Ledwell
Second Best All-round Boy	Geo. F. Baier, III
Second Best All-round Girl	Elizabeth Hensley
Second Most Popular Boy	Bill McNaull
Second Most Popular Girl	Elouise Reed
Most Energetic	Jewell Hartselle
Most Sincere	Elizabeth Hensley
Most Dignified	Victor Logan
Most Womanly	Elizabeth Hensley
Most Manly	Geo. F. Baier, III
Best Mixer	Bill McNaull
Prettiest Girl	Lillian Barber
Most Handsome Boy	Harold Groce
Neatest Girl	Lillian Barber
Neatest Boy	Harold Groce
Most Athletic Girl	Marguerite Horne
Most Athletic Boy	Howard Walter
Sweetest Girl	Anastasia Tomberlin
Cutest Girl	Eva Taylor
Most Conceited	Geo. F. Baier, III
Laziest Boy	Johnny Sales
Class Woman-Hater	Charles Cook
Class Man-Hater	Sallie Green Allison
Class Vamp	Shelby Bost
Class Monkey	Ruth Ledwell
Class Baby	Paul Walter
Our Heart Smasher	Fred Hollinshead

One of our fellowmen voted for Prof. Duncan for Most Generous—said he gave him ten hours. Can you guess who the thoughtful one was? Another friend added a special vote: Favorite Auntie—Penny.

WEAVERVILLE, N. C. DECEMBER 12, 1936

SPECIAL EDITION FOR THE RENOWNED CLASS OF 1928

DR. LANDIS SPEAKER OF DAY AT WEAVER UNIVERSITY

Dr. Bernard Landis, A.B., M.A., Ph.D., a former student of Weaver, was the main speaker during the dedication of the Weaver Gym. His language was so flowery and so full of wit, and his delivery so good that he kept his audience spell bound during his talk of two hours and a half.

Charming Sallie Green Allison, the cabaret entertainer of New York, formerly of Horse Shoe, N. C., and her "Rough House Roses", have been very successful for the past few seasons on Broadway.

Paul Muir has become a very successful paper-hanger. He does not have to labor all the year around, however, because he married Miss Arbutus Blossomtop, the multi-million heiress. Lillian Barber, to whom he was engaged while at Weaver, dropped him some time ago because of his occasional violent epileptic fits.

Stowe Carpenter, who was a very popular member of the class of '28, is now Business Manager of the Federal Mortgage Company of St. Louis. He was Business Manager of the New York Herald last year, but collected too much money; so handed in his resignation.

"Shell" Bost is now pianist for a high-class jazz orchestra in Kannapolis, North Carolina.

Fred Hollinshead and Margaret Cozad are back from Europe where Margaret was acclaimed a genius by royalty in her sketch "The Terrible Blonde." As for Fred, he had been in the hills of Switzerland trying to forget his betrothal to the former Eva Taylor, who jilted him after she found she could not teach Fred to play the ukelele. Eva is now running her own little cafe on 15th Street, New York.

Virgie Tomberlin, being a widow for the second time, is down in New Orleans running an I. W. W. Club. She expects to come to Asheville and get Charles Cook and show him the gay life of the Crescent City. Virgie knows it's leap year and that Charles has remained single all these years. Watch Dan Cupid again!

Mr. Charles Edward Vale is taking the leading role this week in Gounod's "Faust" at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. Mr. Vale is noted for the rich mellowness of his voice and is expected to be a fair rag-time singer in a few more years.

Mr. Kim, the distinguished Oriental diplomat, has just returned from a trip to the African Wilds, where he attempted to beat some sense into the hardened skulls of the natives. We don't know whether he succeeded or not, but the natives went wild when he attempted to teach them American poetry translated into Chinese dialect.

Mr. Juan Ramon Xiques was elected President of the Republic of Cuba today, and with his beautiful wife, Miss Ruth Hansen, was presented a beautiful hand-painted tissue paper chair, the historic chair that all the Cuban presidents have sat in.

KENNETH BEAM DONATES $50,000 TO WEAVER COLLEGE GYM

With this slip of the advocate we can say that the gym stands fully paid for. For "Our Kenn", who is now known as head of the Reems Creek Hatchery, deliberately gave $50,000 to clear the department. But due credit must be given his wife, the former Elizabeth Hensley, who cares for all the little chickens at the Beams' home.

Miss Anastasia Tomberlin and Mr. Harold Groce, former Weaver students, after tiring of the hum-drum monotony of Asheville, are seeing the world, just bummin' along. Stasia uses a bicycle, and Groce uses a tricycle. When in need of money, they stop in the slums of one of the big cities long enough for Groce to climb a skyscraper like a "human-fly." Stasia stays below selling balloons. If Groce comes down safely, they thank the crowd, and then pedal away, for they're just bummin' along.

Mr. John Claude Sales is Manager of the Sales Manufacturing Plant of Fletcher, N. C. This is the largest manufacturing plant of its kind in the world, being the only factory to produce hand-made bathtubs. Sales, by the way, gives $40,000 annually to Weaver College.

Mrs. Paul Browning Walters, (nee Miss Lucille Callahan), is a society matron of Asheville, N. C. Her magnificent home is one of the show places of Asheville, although her figure is the despair of the dress-maker and her husband's pocket-book. She weighs somewhere in the region of 250; it isn't exactly known how much. Her husband is the well known actor, Walter Browning. Some of his of his noted performances are: Sheet Music in the Music Master, The Wagon Top in the Covered Wagon, and The Envelope in the Scarlet Letter.

Dr. Victor Logan has just accepted the position of professor of French at Cornell. Dr. Logan is considered one of the greatest living authorities on French. He attributes his success to his first work at Weaver College. Dr. Logan is very original in his methods of instruction and his pronunciation. He has recently written a widely discussed letter to the Sarbonne, scoring the French for their deficiency in the matter of pronouncing their own language.

Mr. Chas. Ross has recently completed his patent-leather steam shovel to be used in completing the new concrete highway to Mars. Mr. Ross is recognized as one of the great minds of the Modern World, and his many scientific inventions have done much to advance civilization.

MRS. J. L. WIGGS AND MRS. PAUL CRENSHAW HONORED

The Ladies' Missionary Society gave a reception in honor of Mrs. John L. Wiggs and Mrs. Paul Crenshaw, returned missionaries from Africa. Mrs. Wiggs and Mrs. Crenshaw contributed to the enjoyment of the affair by telling of the many interesting experiences they had while in Africa Mrs. Wiggs was formally Miss Mary Jewell Hartselle; Mrs. Crenshaw was Miss Marguerite Horne.

"THE STATE CHAMPIONS"

Gridiron Graphics

When Coach H. P. Talman issued the call for football men, the prospects were uncertain as Captain Mease did not return and the only letter men that reported for duty were Wiggs, who was elected Captain, Jordan, Robinson, Vinson, Baier, and Pridgen. However this, with the abundance of new material, proved to be as much as could be asked for. So in a remarkably short time Coach Talman and Assistant Coach Baker had the team of teams ready for battle.

To start the season right, Captain Wiggs led the team to a 20-0 victory over Waynesville. The following week "Runt" Altman slid down the field for forty yards and defeated M. P. C. I. 6-0. Farm School was swamped 72-13. (The thirteen points were a matter of sympathy). Wingate was defeated 14-0, and thus last year's defeat was avenged.

Weaver journeyed to the eastern part of the state where she walloped Campbell College, last year's state champions, 25-0. This is where Weaver showed what an aerial attack could do. Jordan was the shining star, scoring thirteen points.

Weaver cinched the State Championship, when she surprised the Rutherford Ramblers, 18-6. (Accidents will happen, so our opponents scored the six points). Vinson's good judgment in calling signals, his sensational end runs, and his ninety-five yard sprint through the midst of the Ramblers made him the hero of the battle.

The State Champ rode over to Arden and handed the Christ School Gridders their first defeat. On account of the mud the score was only 63 to 0.

In order to enjoy Thanksgiving the team visited Catawba and naturally was victorious again. The Catawba College eleven was beaten 13-0, and Weaver had an undefeated team for the first time in the history of the school; and became North Carolina Junior Champions for the first time since 1924.

Soon after the beginning of the season the squad narrowed down to about twenty-five good men; these fought the fight and loyally stuck to their job until the close of the season. Eighteen letters and stars were awarded; the following received stars; "Pete" Wiggs (captain), Right End; "Tennessee" Vinson, Quarterback; and "Robbie" Robinson, Fullback. Those awarded letters were: "Lije" Begley, Left End; "Duck" Crenshaw, Left Guard; Jack Trantham, Left Tackle; Jack Barden, Center; Burton Teague, Halfback; "Runt" Altman, Halfback; "Bugs" Eberly, Halfback; "Dowdy" Osborne, Fullback; Charles Ross, End; "Froggy" Walter, Center; Jimmy Townsend, Halfback; and Manager Muir. The remarkable record of the team, however, is due in a very large respect to the fighting scrubs who, although seldom in the limelight, hold the responsibility of making the first team a success. Among those worthy of praise are "Fat" Ballard, "Red" Driskell, "Big" Starnes, Stabler, Wilkins, Hollinshead, Xiques, "Ed" Thompson, and Styles.

Honorable Mention

HERE IT'S DUE!

This year the Mnemosyneans and Clios were the victors in the Annual contest, which took place between the four literary societies for the purpose of securing subscriptions for this, our Mountaineer. The Mnemosynean and Cliosophic Literary Societies worked hard and deservingly receive this honor which is bestowed upon them. The Euterpeans and Delphians, although not victorious, fought desperately to the finish. The contest was heated throughout by the friendly rivalry of Miss Lillian Barber, Mnemosyeans; Miss Marguerite Horne, Euterpeans; Mr. Pearlie Snider, Clios; and Mr. Ralph Styles, Delphians.

THE WORTHY MNEMOSYNEANS

Between the girls' societies the victory was for the Mnemosyneans. This triumph merely shows the loyalty and characteristic spirit of the Mnemosyneans, a desire to put things across and to make a success of all they try. The Mnemosyneans have a wonderful record, having won in the subscription contest last year, and this year securing 47 per cent of the total number of subscriptions which was divided between the four societies. The Mnemosyneans also won the Recitation Contest. Their motto is: "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm." Perhaps it is because they are so full of enthusiasm that they never feel defeat.

THE WORTHY CLIOS

"They do things"

The Cliosophic Literary Society has again forged to the front. This time it was through a sense of loyalty on the part of their members and the personal salesmanship of "Red" Snider. They persist in maintaining worthy standards and lofty ideals, and score not only in forensic achievement but also in business capacity. A combination of the two, tempered with the spirtual element, makes for a well-rounded citizen whose character and reputation are to be emulated not to say envied.

"THE CLIOS' VOICE"

We are glad we are Clios,
Though our number is but few;
Just come and look us over
And you'll find we are the true.

We are active in supporting
Anything that comes our way,
We always are successful,
For we're working every day.

Take into consideration
Everything that we can do,
And you will find the Clios
To their colors, strong and true.

Curious Crowns

MANY A TRUTH IS SPOKEN IN JEST

Quite a number of Weaver College students have become famous or rather claim such honor. For instance, we have Mr. Doane Fussell, Esq., who claims to be the champion checker player; he has never lost a game, so he says. Harvey Robinson is a triple-threat man with the pig-skin—with the fair skin, too. Vinson says he is the best athlete Tennessee has ever produced. It might come true—some things do. Marguerite Horne takes the Crown with the Racket—both kinds. Sallie Green is the best book clerk Weaver has ever had—she sells everything in the store. Shelby's "Queen of the Flappers"—that's enough for anyone of her size. Kim has completely mastered Chinese, while Xiques is our best Spanish scholar. Jesse Young is the world's model cross-country champion, and "Froggy"—well, the name's enough.

We all know "Stasia" for her brilliant class work, in fact she is our salutatorian, and well deserves to be 'cause she knows her studies. Charlie Ross, the lost boy of Philadelphia, ranks next in the mastery of displaying mental ability. His momentous and capacious scientific and inventive theories and suggestions, have led him to be the most valuable laboratory assistant Weaver Tech has ever acquired. He is working on an automatic coal-bucket carrier and self-manipulating poker now.

We can't leave out Paul Walter, the lad who lost his "dern" diary, and who then became frantic and almost passed away. He is our John Barrymore, some actor—some character! Then there is another Paul—Pauline Muir, who has won fame by defeating the great first team of Weaver Tech by means of his Virginian outcurve and his Reedville upshoot. He has a way with the women, too. The queen of the class, our Lillian, has completely fallen for him—and him alone. Getting back into the baseball world, we have Captain George "Rattlesnake" Hartley, the great all-Weaver shortstop, no doubt the best stopper we have. Then there is Johnny Sales, the leading Southpaw. He fans them all—with a book if nothing else.

McClamroch is the Bishop of the White House and presides with a sharp tongue but pleasing manner. Ruth Ledwell, "Our Little Fatso", has taken the first prize for merry making. "Bad Eye" Guthrie should be our tennis champion, he never leaves the court. He expects to have his meals brought to him now, since he can't take his eyes off the game. McClamroch, Styles, and Furr are tied for the Debating Medal. Ed Thompson has taken the honor as our jester—he always wants to play.

In basketball we only have five outstanding stars: Ross, our tall boy; Crenshaw, our three letter man; Begley, our hard-boiled guard; Driskell, our red-headed forward; and Robinson; they all deserve crowns—but don't crown them too hard. Harold Groce, under the supervision of his maestro, George Hartley, has become the best Rook player we have. He was victorious in every intercollegiate contest that he has entered. Messrs. Bernard Landis and Ed Vale are our outstanding orators. Stowe Carpenter is the most consistent radio fan that Weaver has had since 1772; he sleeps with his headphones on—no wonder he dances in his sleep.

Clyde Young deserves three medals for selling ads, and another for the courageous act he did—that of getting married. The winner of the most consuming contest of the year has not yet been announced; however, the leaders of this contest—that of eating—are drawing near the finish—they are Crenshaw, Ross, Froggy, and Ponder. Miss Smith has been a splendid coach throughout the year.

A Whirlwind of Events

IN THOSE MEMORABLE DAYS OF THE CLASS OF '28

SEPTEMBER

8—4,500 students arrived.
10—We meet at the Epworth League Social.
17—The Clios and Euterpeans entertained.
18—We elected our conspicuous Seniors.
19—We Seniors re-elected C. H. Trowbridge to the presidency.
24—The Delphians and Mnemosyneans gave their blow-out at Skinner Hall.

OCTOBER

8—Our "Gold and Black" defeated M. P. C. I.
12—The pigskin men purchase pig, plan a big feast, but pig dies.
15—Jordan attended a class.
31—Witches and goblins paraded boys' dormitory. A dark conclusion!

NOVEMBER

4—Weaver thanked Rutherford for the State Championship. Vinson won ninety yard dash!
15—The Clios and their sisters gave us "The Cinderella Man."
22—We had grits and gravy for breakfast.
24—Three boys go to Asheville—for a change.

DECEMBER

14—The Mnemosyneans and Delphians present "Pals First."
15—"Shell" Bost wrote Santa Claus asking for a certain little boy's heart.
16—Stowe Carpenter has a date with a co-ed.
17—Bill McNaull gives away a necktie.
18—Exams and Xmas.

JANUARY

4—There were such greetings—Hey! Hello! Bless your heart! Did you have a big time? Smack, smack!
5—Back to books with New Year's resolutions.
6—All resolutions broken.
14—Leap Year Party. Girls' chance! Even "Stasia" and "Becky" had one.

FEBRUARY

2—Opening dances held in new gym. Faculty attend en masse.
10—Ross finally fell in love. It had to happen.
14—Cupid throws his darts—struck Olive Jones and Mark Pridgen.
22—Junior-Senior Banquet at Battery Park Hotel.

MARCH

3—Crutchfield Hall was refurnished.
6—"Pete" Wiggs rattles out to see the new furnishings—and Jewel, too.
9—It was the rumor that Paul Crenshaw and Marguerite Horne had a date.
18—Gravy and grits for breakfast.
31—Baseball team takes extended tour to Asheville.

APRIL

1—The new gym was moved.
3—Fussell was attacked by Etreyellezema and nearly vanquished.
6—Easter—a rest period.
13—We defeated Rutherford's debating team—unanimously.
17—Grits and gravy for breakfast—we like them now.
18—And the Mountaineer went to press.

"THUS MANY A TRUTH IS SPOKEN IN JEST"

Manhood

Boy, write it down for your guidance the whole of your journey through,
Men may be richer and wiser, but none can be cleaner than you.
Some may be stronger in body, the great feats of life they may do,
But even the genius can never be fairer and squarer than you.

You may be weak in your labor, for that is a physical test,
But in all the strong virtues of manhood you can equal the greatest and best.

If it's said you were cheerful and kindly, if it's said you were honest and true,
No more could be told of a monarch, for the best has been spoken of you.

For honor and truth have no shadings, no differing parts or degrees,
And in virtue the humblest can equal the mightiest man that he sees.

You may not be clever and skillful, you may not be strong as the few,
But if you've the mind to be honest there's none can be straighter than you.

Laffin' Gas

"'Tis wrong for any maid to be
Away at night alone,
A chaperon she needs, till she
Can call some chap-er-own."

Fred: "What is the date please?"

Prof. Duncan: "Never mind the date; the examination is more important."

Fred: "Well, sir, I wanted to have something right on my paper."

Stranger: "Are you a student here?"

Shorty: "No, I just go to college here."

Groce: "So you know as much about it as the coach? How do you figure that?"

Froggy: "Well, he just said himself that it was impossible for him to teach me anything."

Mr. Baker: "What can you tell me about nitrates?"

Paul: "Well—er they're cheaper than day rates."

Mrs. Pylant: "I'll teach you to make love to Chloe, young man."

That certain young man: "I wish you would, Mrs. Pylant, I'm not making much headway."

Mrs. Pylant: "Can you prove that the square of the hypothenuse is equal to the sum of the squares of the two sides of this triangle?"

Paul: "I don't have to prove it; I admit it."

Logan: "I like to hear Prof. Baker lecture on Chemistry. He brings things home to me that I never have seen before."

Sikes: "That's nothing; so does the laundry."

Teacher: "If your mother gave you a large apple and a small apple, and told you to divide with your brother, which apple would you give him?"

Johnny: "D'ye mean my big brother or my little one?"

Customer: "Do you really think sardines are healthy?"

Grocer: "Well, madam, I never heard one complain."

ADVERTISEMENTS

An Appreciation

THE BUSINESS STAFF wishes to take this opportunity of sincerely expressing its gratitude to those who have seen fit to place advertisements in this, the Mountaineer. Without your support it would not have been possible to publish this book. The Staff earnestly trusts that this will be a valuable medium of advertising. The Staff would futhermore urge that Weaver students carefully read the following pages. We would have you remember those to whom we are indebted for the possibility of issuing this, our Annual. May your spirit of fair play lead you to patronize our advertisers so that their faith in us may be rewarded.

Sincerely,

KENNETH BEAM, Business Manager.

A LAST WORD

OF ENCOURAGEMENT!

Those who have been in Weaver College for five or six years should remember that it took Noah six hundred years to build the Ark.

So keep a-digging.

Those who have through persistence and hard work overcome the task and have merited a diploma should remember that life is just beginning.

So keep a-digging.

Here's to the best of luck,
